

SEPT 24 - 25, 2010
B-09 sage hall (Johnson business school)

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

8:30 coffee & breakfast

9:00 opening remarks

9:15 ANTONIO NEGRI [via video conference]
"The Italian Break: Production versus Development"

10:45 coffee break

11:15 REMO BODEI
"Goodbye to Community: Exile and Separation"

12:45 lunch

2:00 IDA DOMINIJANNI
"Wounds of the Common"

3:30 coffee break

4:00 CESARE CASARINO
"Universalisms of the Common"

COMMONALITIES

theorizing the common in contemporary italian thought

a Diacritics conference

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25

8:30 coffee

9:00 ROBERTO ESPOSITO
"Community and Violence"

10:30 coffee

11:00 FRANCO BERARDI ("BIFO")
"Autonomy as Paradigm:
From the Context of Late Modern Expansion
to the Present Context of Exhaustion"

12:30 lunch

1:30 MICHAEL HARDT
"Pasolini Discovers Love Outside"

3:00 coffee

3:30 ROUNDTABLE
with Karen Pinkus (Cornell), Alberto Moreiras (Texas A&M), and Timothy Murray (Director, Society for the Humanities)

5:30 reception at the a.d. white house

Respondents: Bruno Bosteels, Mabel Berezin, Andrea Righi, Jodi Dean, Laurent Dubreuil, Karen Pinkus and Kevin Attell
Moderators: Lorenzo Fabbri, Paolo Matteucci, Rhiannon Welch, Patricia Keller, Alberto Moreiras, Stefano Giannini
and Richard Barney

Sponsored by: Department of Romance Studies, College of Arts and Sciences, Society for the Humanities, French Studies Program, the Bowmar Chair in Humanistic Studies, and the Class of 1916 Professor of English and Comparative Literature